

Ranking Rules

1. Age group rankings for all run categories, will be for overall finish timing of the runner in his/her age category. Additionally, age category rankings will be across all Corporate Groups (where runner is registered as part of a Corporate Group) and across all CSO/NGO Groups (where runner is registered as part of a CSO/NGO Group).
2. Winner Medals and Merit Certificates can be won by the top 3 finishers of respective age groups, subject to provisions on point 3 below.
3. Where a runner falls within top 3 finish positions of an age group, basis his/her overall performance in a run category, and he/she also falls within the top 3 finishers of the same age group amongst all Corporate or CSO Groups, he/she will receive winner medal of the ranking and group for his overall performance only; and not for both performances. His/her finish position in the overall rankings and the respective corporate/CSO group ranking will remain unchanged.
4. For the sake of clarity –
Scenario A – Mrs. A has registered to be part of a corporate group 'ABC Ltd.'. Post completing her ADHM half marathon, she has been overall ranked first amongst all women in the age group 45 years to 49 years in the half marathon. Mrs. A also has finished first amongst women across all Corporate groups. She will receive gold medal for her overall position in the age group 45 years to 49 years, and not for her ranking amongst women across all Corporate Groups. Her overall and Corporate Group rankings will remain unchanged irrespective.
Scenario B – Mr. L has registered to be part of a CSO group 'XYZ Foundation'. Post completing his ADHM Open 10K, he has overall ranked 10th amongst all men in the age group 20 years to 24 years in the 10K. He has however ranked second amongst men in the same age group across all CSO/NGO groups. He will receive silver medal for his performance across all CSO/NGO Groups. However, his overall and CSO/NGO Group rankings will remain unchanged.
5. Age category rankings and eligibility to winner medals and merit certificates are basis finish timings captured solely through the ADHM App. Please ensure that your mobile device has adequate data connectivity, GPS/GLONASS, etc. connectivity in order to record the activity on the ADHM App without interruption.
6. You are to participate only in the race category for which you had applied and for which your entry has been confirmed. Running in a category you have not been confirmed in will not entitle you to any benefits of the event. Further, your entry and running number bib is not transferable to any other person under any circumstance.
7. Prize winners declared may be required to submit further proof of identity/age, or any other identity as may be required by the Event Promoter, for disbursement of medals and certificates, failing which, the Event Promoter, Procam International, may, at its sole discretion, withhold disbursement or disqualify the said runner from competition.
8. Procam International's decision on rankings and entitlements will be final and binding on all.
